P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, over 1,000 home economists in nearly every community in South Dakota are influencing people of all age levels as they strive to strengthen home and family life as professional workers and homemakers; and

WHEREAS, the American Home Economics Association is a national organization of which the South Dakota Home Economics Association is an integral part; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Home Economics Association is a statewide organization of home economists working in the areas of education, extension, business, research, dietetics, and homemaking; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the home as the basic unit of our society in which home economists understand the problems of family stability, consumer competence, family health, family housing, and community and resource development that are typical of today's family in today's world; and

WHEREAS, home economists of the State of South Dakota strive to translate the needs of the family into attitudes, competencies, and products that will result in better family living for the people of the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 11 through April 17, 1971 as

and urge all citizens to take notice of the contributions of the home economists of this state and to encourage the continued achievements of this organization in personal and family living relationships.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 31st day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.

Richard F. Kneip
